

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MEDIA RELEASE

Providing Feasts for Families

WEST HARTFORD—November 4—Jewish Family Services and The Crown Market are partnering with donors from the community this Thanksgiving season to feed 100 families served by the Anja Rosenberg Kosher Food Pantry at Jewish Family Services. Volunteers will deliver grocery bags stuffed with turkey and all the trimmings in time for Thanksgiving Day.

Donations from the community are being accepted online and at The Crown from now through November 20th. Donations of $18, paired with in-kind donations from The Crown Market, will feed a family of four.

"Our family is committed to ensuring that no one in the JFS community goes hungry, especially during the holiday season. The Thanksgiving Food Drive is a meaningful opportunity to teach our children to be thankful and give back," said Pia Rosenberg Toro, JFS Development Co-Chair.

To donate, visit jfshartford.org/feed-100-families

JFS focuses on three core areas: Counseling, Education, and Community Support, and utilizes a variety of counseling treatment approaches and can help clients address a wide range of issues. Visit www.jfshartford.org to learn more about Jewish Family Services.

###

Media Contact: Penny Phillips, Director of Marketing
pPhillips@jfshartford.org | Office: 860-236-1927 x7130 | Cell: 860-712-6980
jfshartford.org